
Japan to Let IAEA Inspect Plant - Wall Street Journal

Contributed by Administrator
Sunday, 22 July 2007

CBC NewsJapan to Let IAEA Inspect Plant

Wall Street Journal - 1 hour ago

AP NEW YORK -- The Japanese government has decided to have the International Atomic Energy Agency inspect a nuclear power plant that was affected by a powerful earthquake last Monday, Kyodo news service reported Sunday, citing government officials.

Tepco counts cost of earthquake Financial Times (subscription)

N-plant shows scars of quake The Daily Yomiuri

Forbes - Times of India - Reuters.uk - International Herald Tribuneall 378 news articles

Full Story

CBC NewsJapan to Let IAEA Inspect Plant

Wall Street Journal - 1 hour ago

AP NEW YORK -- The Japanese government has decided to have the International Atomic Energy Agency inspect a nuclear power plant that was affected by a powerful earthquake last Monday, Kyodo news service reported Sunday, citing government officials.

Tepco counts cost of earthquake Financial Times (subscription)

N-plant shows scars of quake The Daily Yomiuri

Forbes - Times of India - Reuters.uk - International Herald Tribuneall 378 news articles

Full Story